(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, April 28.—Former Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti today charged his dismissal from office was an evident attempt to throttle his investigation into bribery charges against two cabinet officials.

The two cabinet officials—David L. Lawrence, secretary of the commonwealth, and Secretary of Labor and Industry Ralph M. Bashore—should be immediately suspended, said Margiotti, from their duties.

Margiotti charged the two accepted $10,000 each in bribes from brewery interests for "favorable" legislation.

Fired Many For Less Reason.

"The Governor, Earle, has fired many persons for far less reasons than that," commented Margiotti.

Margiotti, sitting in his office at the capitol preparatory to evacuating it, bitterly charged Lawrence, Bashore and Matthew H. McCloskey, Philadelphia Democratic leader and wealthy contractor now under fire, with bringing about his dismissal.

Margiotti said he felt his dismissal was prompted by the desire, on the part of the guilty persons, to shear him of the authority I had as attorney general.

It was, he said, an attempt to throttle the investigation of the two cabinet officials and McCloskey. "I think there's no question about it," he said, adding:

Lawrence Dictated.

Knickerbocker Asserts Hitler Winner In Civil War, Near End In Spain

HENDAYE, Franco-Spanish Frontier, April 28.—The costliest civil war in the history of the world is drawing to its close just across the border in Spain. And Adolf Hitler, Fuehrer of the greater Reich, has already won it.

The graves of one million Spaniards today present to a mournful world a new record for internecine slaughter within a period of 21 months. But no observers can predict correctly when the useless killing will cease, although it is now certain that a victory for Generalissimo Francisco Franco will eventually be proclaimed.

The dying members of this mighty conflagration which has snuffed out twice as many lives as the American Civil war within half the length of time, could be extinguished within a fortnight. But expert observers believe it may go on for two months or a maximum of six.

Hitler Is Winner

Hitler is the real winner of this war, because:

"First, without Hitler's threat to France and England Mussolini could not have sent to Franco the troops which have turned the tide of battle in his favor.

Second, without Hitler's threat both the Soviet Union and France could and would have sent the government of Spain sufficient help to win.

Third, Hitler's appalling swift conquest of Austria finally led England and France to abandon all pretense of neutrality in the Spanish war and drove them precipitously into negotiations with Italy by which acknowledge presence of Italian troops in Spain and by implication consent to their remaining until Franco's conquest is complete.

Attacked Other Dogs

The same dog was said to have attacked dogs owned at 514 North Cedar street, 114 West Madison avenue and 609 North Cedar street.

According to the police reports, Donald Pyle was the most seriously injured. He had been visiting at the home of Lloyd Rolls, 312 Fern street. The dog which was owned by Amy Volpe was cared for by others, police say. It was loose when the Pyle boy was attacked.

When council convened in city hall this morning a resolution was adopted granting Mayor McGrath authority to impose a 90 days quarantine on dogs here.

"The governor is attempting to block the investigation by appointing Dean Goodrich attorney general," Wilson said. "The public will not be satisfied with a whitewash by Dean Goodrich or anyone else. The charges of corruption are too serious to be smothered."

May Earmark Fund For U. S. Army Defenses

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, April 28.—Possibility that congress may earmark $120,000,000 of the $4,712,000,000 recovery fund for army housing and strengthening of strategic military bases in the Pacific, arose today when Secretary of Interior Ickes gave tacit approval to the proposal.

In a letter to the war department Ickes said he would have "no objection" to congress allocating a portion of PWA's recommended $1,000,000,000 to the army for national defense projects. Should congress take the step, Ickes wrote, he would lend his "fullest cooperation."

Supporters of national defense in congress took immediate steps to lay the war department's proposals before the house appropriations committee, now engaged in drafting the omnibus recovery bill for presentation to the house next week.

HARRISBURG, April 28.—Grave charges of bribery and corruption in the cabinet of Gov. George H. Earle resulting in dismissal of the state's attorney general who leveled the accusations, today pushed Pennsylvania's Democratic party perilously near utter disruption.

Three weeks from primary election day, the sensational developments climaxed months of party dissension over the Democratic three-way gubernatorial fight.

Margiotti Confers

Dismissed as attorney general by Governor Earle for refusing to turn over all evidence behind his graft allegations, Charles J. Margiotti conferred for almost three hours today with Judges William M. Hardest and John E. Fox of the Dauphin county court in pressing for a grand jury investigation.

With him were District Attorney Carl B. Shelley and Fred C. Morgan, assistant county prosecutor. Not long after the morning session began a stenographer was called into the Judge Hardest's chambers, ostensibly to record Margiotti's charges.

When the meeting broke up at noon, Shelley made the only statement, saying:

"We have had a conference and are going to meet again at 3 p. m. D.S.T. this afternoon after which time I may have something more to say."

For Further Comment

Margiotti indicated he would save for his radio broadcast tonight any further comment on the situation. He has promised to tell the "whole story" behind his dismissal tonight in one of his addresses as an independent Democratic candidate for governor.

Farley Would Relinquish Post

Ready To Quit Cabinet Job

Several Reasons Cited As Bearing Upon His Probable Decision

NOT CONSULTED AS MUCH ON NEW DEAL

By WALTER KIRKMAN
International News Service Staff Writer

NEW YORK, April 28.—"Master politician, witty, loyal, shrewd, courageous, desires good paying job. Best of references. Reserves right to dabble in politics."

Postmaster General James A. Farley hasn't gotten to the point of framing an advertisement like that but informed opinion today is that he is ready to quit his cabinet post. The reason for this is not clear, but it is believed that he is probably not interested in the government of New York either.

He isn't making as much money as he would like to make. This is well known.

2. He isn't consulted as often on patronage and policy matters as in the early days of the New Deal. This he probably would not admit.

3. As postmaster general, Farley draws $15,000 a year. But this is not enough for a man who has built a comfortable fortune in the building supply business, who is ambitious for his three children, whose living costs run high.

Financial Angle

Not much better is the $25,000 which New York State pays its governor. The incidental expenses of executive mansion occupancy at Albany eat up most of that. The financial angle is offered as one of the reasons why Farley today is little discussed as Democratic candidate for governor. The inference is that he would not be interested.

His political situation in Washington is something else again. In the early days of the Roosevelt administration he was guide, friend, practically official interpreter of the New Deal.

Today White House policies do not always conform to his ideas of what is smart politics. Today son Jimmy tells a Florida audience that "we want Senator Pepper back in Washington and Farley privately shudders—he has consistently advised the president to keep clear of state primary fights.

The administration is still enthusiastic for Farley but in the public eye it is son Jimmy who interprets the White House policies.

Mellon Estate Has Paid $8,000,000 In Taxes To State

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 28.—The late Andrew W. Mellon's estate has paid approximately $8,000,000 in inheritance taxes into the state treasury during the current fiscal year which began last June, it was disclosed by the treasury here today.

John Byerly, chief of the bureau of securities and bank accounting, said the funds from the former secretary of the treasury's vast estate had gone into the general fund as they came in. The tax money was used in meeting regular general fund disbursements, he explained.

Byerly said it was difficult to estimate how much additional tax money might come from the estate, in view of fluctuating values and the complexity of the holdings. He said the state might get "several million dollars" additional.

the power or rejection has been left him. The governor gave specific instructions that no appointments should be made except by Lawrence, Van Dyke and others, none of whom, with the exception of Lawrence, interested themselves in it. Lawrence also passed upon all acts presented before the legislature. When he wanted a bill killed, it was killed.

Concerning the governor, Margiotti was emphatic in again reiterating he was in no way involved in the present situation.

"There is no question about the governor's innocence," he said. "Absolutely no question."

He added:

"I am a Democrat and I am in this campaign to save the party from its rotten leaders who are in it for profit. This party doesn't belong to Lawrence and McCloskey. I burnt my bridges behind me four years ago. My actions are based on saving the party, not destroying it. I think this is a Godsend to the party. The present Democratic bosses are more arrogant than the bosses we kicked out in 1934. Guffy is not a bit better than Dave Lawrence. They're both greedy and both want to control the purse-strings and business of the state."

Senator Joseph E. Guffy and Lieutenant Governor Thomas Kennedy, the latter a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor were expected to arrive about 2 o'clock.

A reception was scheduled in the hotel between 2 and 4 o'clock and at 4:15 a mass meeting was scheduled for the Central Fire station lot on South Jefferson street.

LONG CONFERENCE AT HARRISBURG WITH MARGIOTTI

by International News Service whether a grand jury could be summoned "within 24 hours" as Margiotti had contended, said:

"It could be done, but it might take a little longer than that."

Two days, he said, would be ample time.

None of the principals at the conference in the Dauphin county court house indicated what stand the court and district attorney planned to take on summoning a grand jury as Margiotti desired.

Governor Earle appointed Dean Herbert F. Goodrich, of the University of Pennsylvania Law School, as the former criminal attorney's successor for the remaining eight months of his administration. Goodrich said he would announce his decision on acceptance today.

Charges Made

Margiotti specifically charged Secretary of the Commonwealth David L. Lawrence, Democratic state chairman, and Secretary of Labor and Industry Ralph M. Bashore, Democratic state committee secretary, with each receiving $10,000 from brewery interests for "favorable" legislation in 1935. Matthew H. McCloskey, Philadelphia Democratic leader and wealthy contractor, whose company has received some $10,000,000 in state contracts, was a "go-between," Margiotti charged.

Angry and emphatic denials were immediately forthcoming from all principals concerned.

"An unmitigated lie," said Bashore. "Absolutely no truth to it," commented Lawrence.

The attorney general's dismissal came after one of the strangest episodes in the state's history, strange because it took place before a full audience of capitol newspaper correspondents, who watched while some of the highest leaders in the state government and Democratic party bickered and fought, with charges of bribery and corruption of public officials punctuating the tense atmosphere.

Hours Of Controversy

In what he termed "a crucial moment in the state's history," Governor Earle summoned Margiotti to the executive mansion demanded that he name the attorney who he claimed passed the bribes to the cabinet officials.

After hours of heated controversy, during which Margiotti insisted the name be made public only to the governor and a grand jury, he finally named the attorney at governor Earle's direction, but flatly refused to present anything further at the time.

From the attorney, Meade J. Mulvihill, counsel for the Pennsylvania State Brewers Association, came an immediate denial of the charges.

"There is not one iota of truth about them," he declared.

All the principals involved are in some way mixed up in the present primary campaign. Governor Earle as a candidate for U. S. senator, Lawrence as head of the State Democratic organization, Bashore as its secretary, McCloskey as its finance chairman, and Margiotti as an anti-organization Democratic gubernatorial candidate.

Wilson Opened Revelations

It was Governor Earle's Democratic opponent for the U. S. senatorship—Mayor S. Davis Wilson of Philadelphia—who touched off the spark charged Governor Earle with borrowing $30,000 from McCloskey and said McCloskey was favored in the awarding of huge general state authority contracts. Earle emphatically denied this, but admitted he borrowed $26,500 from McCloskey and still owed him $6,000.

Wilson is a candidate on the ticket headed by Lieut. Gov. Thomas Kennedy for governor and backed by U. S. Senator Joseph P. Guffy and the CIO. Guffy is now engaged in a struggle with Lawrence over control of the State Democratic party. On the sidelines President Roosevelt, national head of the party and friend of both Guffy and Earle. Political observers today were wondering what, if any, action would be forthcoming from him.

Margiotti, following his conference with the governor, conferred with Dauphin county court judges and with the Dauphin county district attorney, Carl B. Shelley. Then he returned to his office at the capitol to be met with the governor's curt note of dismissal, which said:

"I hereby, effectively, immediately remove you as attorney general because you have refused to substantiate before the people of Pennsylvania the most serious charges you made last night against three of your political opponents."

Margiotti said he would present—

MRS. J. J. McILVAINE ADDRESSES DEPARTMENT

Tension situations about the world as they affect the peace of the United States were discussed by Mrs. J. J. McIlvaine at the April meeting of the Department of International Relations in the home of the chairman, Mrs. George W. Shaw, Washington avenue, on Wednesday afternoon.

Present conditions were compared with the situation ten years ago and changes were noted by coloring maps where foreign policy has been a major factor in removing tensions. Also it indicated what causes have increased tensions.

Continuing the study based on the marathon round table discussion arranged by the National Committee on the Cause and Cure of War, Mrs. T. F. Stuyker discussed the psychological effects that influence public opinion in the light of the Kellogg-Briand pact. She pointed out national defense policies that provide least friction and that are most likely to preserve peace.

The department voted to purchase a book valuable to their study to be placed in the memorial alcove recently established by the Woman's club in memory of Mrs. I. B. Griffith in the new library. Announcement was made a world trade map of this committee was displayed at the industrial exhibit sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

A group of selected spring songs were sung by Mrs. J. J. McIlvaine with Mrs. W. L. Cosel playing her accompaniment.

At a later hour the group was served refreshments from a beautifully appointed tea table, the season's colors predominating.

The May meeting will be in the form of a spring luncheon, and will take place in the new home of Mrs. Harold R. McCulloch.

The Great Game Of Politics

difficult to identify himself with their recovery program, though in the beginning he was strong for it. They wanted to spend on a much larger public-work relief scale than the President, but they also wanted to balance the budget and finance the expenditures by steep increases not only in his taxes of the rich but by taking in several millions which he pay no taxes at all. It may not have been a sound program, but it was extremely concrete. The argument against "broadening the base" so as to tax the little fellow as well as the big was that it would react politically on the Administration. In spite of this, the Senate twice missed passing the La Follette tax plan by a narrow margin. With any Presidential support, it would have gone through easily.

NATURALLY, the La Follette felt Mr. Roosevelt had made a big mistake in not taking their program. Naturally, they felt that he shrinks from a strong dose. Naturally, they think his present spending program, labeled as a "triumph for his liberal advisers," is not only inadequate but not liberal at all. The net result is that the La Follette are preparing to cut loose and play their own game their own way. They may be all wrong, but they are certainly a more robust and attractive type than the little coterie of young brilliant who have so much to do with the Roosevelt policies and are now planning to prevent the President from what they think is too much "cooperation with business," some moves toward which, it is said, are scheduled to follow his conference with Mr. Ford.

Convention At First Baptist

Two Hundred Delegates Attend Event In Church On Wednesday Night

On Wednesday evening about 200 delegates from the various Sunday school classes attended a convention at the First Baptist church.

Dr. C. H. Heaton, the pastor, conducted the devotions.

Leonard Dandy was the song leader.

Superintendent Paul D. Weller stated the theme of the convention would be "Launch Out", and Mrs. Paul Weller sang a song entitled "Launch Out". He also mentioned that a publishing company had presented a plan of Sunday school increase campaign with slogans "Wake up", "Check up" and "Go forward", with points given for various stages of accomplishment.

B. French Johnson (Tennessee) gave a good talk on the theme "Check Up". Dr. Heaton (delegate from Michigan) had a short address, stating that the fire of progress will either spread or go out, and after it is started it must be kept going and urged all to go forward.

A motion was passed to enter the National Sunday School Building contest, sponsored by a publishing company.

Singers Of Tri-State Area To Attend Festival In Congregational Church

With guests coming from all over the tri-state area, and the capacity of the church limited to about 1000, the annual Gymnastic Gannu scheduled for the First Congregational church, Sunday, May 1, seems certain to be a bigger success than any of these events held in years.

Henry T. Jones, chairman of the day is confident that both the 2:30 and 7 o'clock sessions will see the church crowded. Working with him on the general committee in charge are Miss Florie Davies as secretary and Mrs. D. W. Thomas as treasurer.

Under the leadership of John M. Evans, Jr., the church choir has been preparing special music, two of the numbers in rehearsal being "Worthy is the Lamb" and "The Hallelujah Chorus". The local choir will be augmented by singers from Aliquippa, Sharon, Youngstown and Steubenville.

M. Gwynne Jenkins of Youngstown, O., is the musical director of the day and in him the committee knows it has gotten one of the best in the district. With his own choir he has been a winner in Elsdorff competitions for many years. He will be here Friday night at 7:30 to conduct a rehearsal.

Between sessions of the Gymnastic Gannu the Willing Workers class will serve tea to those who wish to remain in the church.

The Gymnastic Gannu is a music festival, a custom brought here from Wales a century ago. Choruses, solos, congregational singing, all of them have a place in the Gymnastic Gannu and Sunday's affair promises to be most worth while.

LA GUARDIA

Then, there is Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia, of New York.

La Guardia is another does. Admiring the affairs of the city of Washington is a task actually second only to that of the presidency—in times like these, when more than a million persons may be unemployed and must be cared for.

La Guardia has given a businesslike administration; in fact a much more businesslike administration than has been given nationally in Washington. But, then, La Guardia has had no log-pulling congress with which to deal.

Yet La Guardia knows congress got along well with congress when he was part of it, and an important part, too.

La Guardia is making many speeches throughout the country. He is a thorough American, a war hero, a native yet he looks foreign. And America is no less nationalistic than other countries at the moment. There are so many of us that we do not realize we are nationalistic. Now that we all have "melts" in the melting pot, we no longer hold our arms and minds open to folk and ideas from across the sea.

But, mistake not, La Guardia is every inch an American, and knows every inch of America—and its people and their desires. He will be an important factor as early as 1940.

Pennsylvania Leads In Anti-War Petitions

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
(Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News)
WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28.—Pennsylvania led the nation in the number of signatures on petitions given congress by the Veterans of Foreign Wars today as evidence America wants to keep out of war.

The petitions came from every state of the Union and bore nearly four million signatures. They were received by a congressional committee under leadership of Chairman Pittman of the senate foreign relations committee. Presentation was made on the Capitol steps, with VFW Commander-in-Chief Scott P. Souyres and National Auxiliary President Mrs. Laurie M. Schertle officiating.

Purpose of the petitions was "to supply congress with tangible evidence of a tremendous public sentiment in favor of preparedness against war and the desire of the American people for strict neutrality."

Britain To Seek New Speed Mark For Landplane

(International News Service)
LONDON, April 28.—Plans for Britain's attempt to establish a new world's landplane air-speed record with an R. A. F. machine are now complete.

The flight will take place at the beginning of June, and it is hoped by British aviation experts a speed of nearly 500 m. p. h. on a closed circuit will be attained.

A specially adapted Supermarine Spitfire fighter, which is claimed to be the fastest military machine in the world, will be used for the record attempt.

Ace Pilot In Charge
It will be piloted by Squadron Leader Brian Purvis, Commanding Officer of the British Air Ministry experimental flight at the "hush-hush" station at Farnborough, Hampshire.

The plane will have a super-streamlined fuselage and an entirely new type of cockpit for the pilot, with which it is hoped the "black-out" of the pilot during high speed turns will be eliminated.

The machine which is a shark-shaped monoplane will be powered by a 12 cylinder Rolls-Royce 1,050 horse power engine.

Schools Urged To Teach Modern Social Dancing

(International News Service)
BOSTON, April 28.—"Modern social dancing... an important phase of physical education... should be taught in Junior High School," according to Miss Anne Cameron, head of the dance department of Boston University's Sargent College of Physical Education.

"Ballroom dancing should be taught early enough so that students will know not only correct dance steps, but also correct ballroom behavior by the time they get to senior high school," she said. "If this were a general practice, we would not find many girls panic-stricken at the thought of going to a dance when they get to college."

Popular dance crazes are based on fundamentals of good ballroom dancing, Miss Cameron said. The "shag" is based on the "chassez" and "promenade," she declared, although most "shaggers" might not believe it.

"It is too bad that the waltz has lost its popularity," the popular dancing teacher remarked. "As a rule, girls still like it, but usually cannot find a man who can or will dance it. The principal reason is that so few boys go to dancing school now when they are children."

Special Bugle Will Toll End Of Last Man's Club

SPRINGFIELD, O., April 28.—When death calls the 100 members of the Last Man's Club, a special bugle will be used to blow requiem over their graves.

The bugle donated by Margaret Baker, World War nurse, can be used only for this one purpose. After a member dies and the bugle is blown, the deceased member's name will be engraved upon the bugle and it will be returned to its case to await another call.

Russell Rouch is president of the organization, the only one of the kind in Ohio.

Rest Essential To Cure A Cold Doctors Advise

(International News Service)
NEW YORK—If you have a cold go to bed and rest!

This was the advice given before the American College of Physicians at their recent convention here. And it was based on an extensive two-and-a-half year study of 1,667 suffering Harvard students—all cold sufferers.

The survey was made by the Harvard Medical School and a report of findings was presented to the leading doctors of the country by Dr. Arlie V. Bock, of Harvard.

According to the study the doctors were advised not to bother with nasal sprays, nose drops or other remedies, customarily used to stem a cold. Nor is it useful to prescribe swabbing of the patient's throat with argyrol or other preparations, the report said. All these methods it added, merely prolong the cold instead of having a curative effect.

Even the highly regarded injection of vaccines was pooh-poohed.

The cure of a cold reverted to probably the first known remedy—a good rest in bed.

HORATIO ALGER BOOKS NO LONGER HOLD POPULARITY

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, April 28.—To millions of American youths of past generations Horatio Alger's Newsboy has been the symbol of adventure in the world of finance and industry.

He and other characters of the Alger pages have been the well-loved heroes of forbidden fiction—as much a part of the American scene, perhaps, as "Dead Eye Dick" or Jesse James.

But, even if Alger's Newsboy was a favorite when grandfather was a boy, he has little chance of winning a niche in the Brooklyn Public Library's Hall of Fame. The tutored hero of the rags-to-riches story was nominated, along with Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn, for a panel in the bronze grille entrance in the new Central Library building now being constructed, but he seems doomed to defeat.

Instead, trustees are expected to select characters from Mark Twain, Sinclair Lewis, Washington, Irving, James Fenimore Cooper, Edgar Allan Poe and other "classic" authors. "The Alger books have not been circulated by the library for 25 years and have been removed from the more progressive libraries of the country for 30 years," Thomas G. Brown, publicity director, explained.

WASHINGTON
AT A GLANCEThree Nations
Show InfluenceGreat Britain, Germany And Italy Are Interested In South AmericaWHITE CHARGES
AROUSE CAPITAL

Central Press
Washington Bureau
602 Times-Herald Bldg.
By CHARLES F. STEWART
Central Press Columnist
WASHINGTON, April 28.—Senator Wallace H. White, Jr., of Maine, stirred up no little comment in Washington legislative, executive and diplomatic circles by his recent assertion that "there are three European nations which have greater influence than the United States in South America."

The senator, referred, of course, to Britain, Germany and Italy.

He did, to be sure, express a fear that "some of the countries in the Far East as well as European countries may extend their meddling to this continent."

However, evidently he did not especially intend to include Japan, for he specifically said "three nations," not four, and he also said "three European nations."

He also spoke of the danger of overseas meddling as particularly acute on the South American east coast, and Japan is not much of a factor on the Atlantic side of the western hemisphere.

Furthermore, Senator White toured Europe not long ago and made a study of European ambitions; he does not profess to voice himself with any great authority relative to Japan's.

BRITAIN'S INTERESTS

The senatorial warning, then, for whatever it may be worth, simmers down, for the present, principally to Britain, Germany and Italy.

The state department and the navy department (which naturally is keenly concerned in New World developments) recognize that Britain unquestionably is economically more potent than the United States in the republic of Brazil and the Argentine. It "got there" first, as it were, and does have a deal of political weight. Nevertheless, it is not regarded as likely ever to seek "North American governmental domination in Latin America."

John Bull is in commercial competition with Uncle Sam below the equator, and Uncle Sam knows it, but he can stand that kind of competition.

Politically speaking, Italy and Germany are far more deeply "digging in" than Britain is on the South American east coast.

ITALO-GERMAN INFLUENCE

As the state department sees it, Italy perhaps generally is stronger. I lived in Buenos Aires in war time. There were pro-"allied" riots there, of Italian inspiration mainly. Germans had to "hunt their holes."

Still, the Germans held their own in the long run.

And they were the "whole thing," up in southern Brazil, toward Puerto Alegre—as German Hamburg. The present Brazilian government acknowledges it, with its prohibition of Naziistic activities—which obviously it fears may reach (locally) revolutionary proportions.

THE REAL COMPETITOR?

South American Italy isn't so "sassy."

Britain, to tell the truth, is our economic competitor to be most seriously reckoned with.

But maybe not in a military (or naval) sense.

As to Japan?—that is in the future.

STEWART'S REASONING

Japan is supposed to be trying to horn in on the Philippines—and other Pacific islands, including Hawaii.

And to establish itself on the west coast of Mexico.

So.

Is Latin America's east coast to be assimilated by Italy and Germany?

Opposition To Dream HighwayBoyle Cites Opposition To New
Super-Highway Plan
Of State

Opposition to the proposed "dream highway" through the old South Penn tunnels in the Allegheny mountains has developed it became known today. The highway proposal is to cut a new highway from near Lewis and carry it on through to Carlisle, using nine tunnels to escape grades and to charge tolls for the use of the highway.

The opposition is based upon several things, according to Thomas M. Boyle, a director in the William Penn-Lancaster Highway Association. First it is charged that the spending of $60,000,000 to build a 165-mile highway is unwarranted. Second, it is charged that the history of toll highways both in the United States and Europe has been unsuccessful and that, third, infinitely more good could be accomplished by making the William Penn and the Lincoln, 4-way highways.

The protest is spreading across the state and it is understood an attempt will be made in New Castle to crystallize sentiment against it. If the highway is built it would probably divert east-west traffic away from New Castle.

Man at his best: A big shot making fun of a hapless underling to get a laugh from his yes-men.

Injured When Struck By Auto

Automobile Speeds Away After Striking Motorcycle, Police Report

David Rhodes, Rose Point, passenger on a motorcycle operated by Warren A. Hannan, Rose Point R. D. 5, sustained a broken shoulder last night when a motorcycle was struck by a black 1937 Chevrolet coach which did not stop following the accident on the New Castle-Butler road, near Rose Point. Hannan attempted to operate the motorcycle past the car which turned in toward the center of the road, striking the motorcycle.

Eugene C. Hall, Harmony, and Edwin A. Wright, Ellwood City R. D. 1, operated motor vehicles which were in a wreck yesterday afternoon two and one half miles south of Wampum on the Wampum-Beaver Falls road. Hall stopped his auto on the right side of the road and Wright's truck was said by state motor police to have struck the rear of the auto.

Miss Norris Is Given Appointment

Announcement was made in Harrisburg today of the provisional appointment of Miss Beulah Norris as a county supervisor of relief. Miss Norris has been the case supervisor for the Lawrence County relief board for several years, and the provisional appointment is to the same position she has been holding. The appointment was announced by the Department of Public Assistance.

Men's Federation Will Meet Monday

Next Monday evening, May 2, the New Castle Federation of Men's Bible classes will have dinner in the Third United Presbyterian church, corner of Adams and East Washington street.

Dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m. and a short program will follow. A crowd of some 150 men is predicted; reservations are in charge of Harry L. Thomas of Beckford street.

CHARGE IS MADE

John Woolsey, Neamock avenue, was charged in a warrant signed by Chief of Police Ralph A. Criswell with serving liquor to persons visibly intoxicated. The warrant was signed by Criswell yesterday. Woolsey will be given a hearing by Alderman Claude Mantz next week, he stated.

MISSING FROM HOME

James Cole, 17, 118½ East Long avenue, was reported missing from home last night. He was last seen when he left his place of employment at 10 p. m.

SAYS WORLD'S TONIC "GREATEST EVER"

"Seemed Impossible To Regain Health. Began Taking Famous Medicine"

"World's Tonic Stopped Awful Pains"

WORLD'S TONIC really needs no salesmen because every day more and more satisfied and happy users are becoming salespeople for this famous medicine by telling their friends and acquaintances of the many benefits it has brought to them. Listen to this sales talk by Mrs. Frances Menillo of 532 Twelfth St., New Kensington, Pa.

"I'm certainly going to tell all my friends about WORLD'S TONIC. I feel a great obligation towards it, and really think that a great deal of suffering people endure is unnecessary if only more people knew about WORLD'S TONIC. A continual state of constipation had me in such a general run down condition that I was subject to all sorts of symptoms. Stiffness in my joints and limbs, lumbago, rheumatic pains made it difficult for me to move about. I took it for granted that women around fifty years of age should naturally expect to have weaker digestive powers and that not much could be done about it. I tried so many things and spent so much money trying to regain some measure of my former good health without proper results that I was almost convinced this was impossible. The constant rheumatic-like pains were like beatings with a club. Headaches were so bad and frequent that my doctor advised having my glasses changed but this did not relieve the headaches. My friends had a hard time convincing me to try WORLD'S TONIC but I finally did and now I want to pass on the good news to all who suffer as I did. I was astounded at the speedy relief from constipation and now, after four weeks, I'm positive I am on the road to recovering the kind of good health I have sought for so long a time. All those old aches and pains are gone and I find I haven't got rheumatism. World's Tonic is the greatest ever and I recommend it highly."

There are many ingredients in WORLD'S TONIC which come from various parts of the old countries where many of our strong and healthy ancestors lived in health and happiness. Modern and up-to-date with valuable alkalines it is also pleasant to take.

WORLD'S TONIC is for sale at Beckers', Fairley's and all other modern Drug Stores.

Hold-up Attempts Are Reported Here

Police Officers Investigate Two Cases—Both Efforts Are Foiled

Two attempted hold-ups occurred last night and it is likely that Chief of Police Ralph A. Criswell may detail a "strong arm squad" to round up suspected hold-up men.

According to reports at police headquarters this morning, Robert Radcliffe, 217 North Ray street, at midnight last night, left his employment place, the Shenango Pottery, and was getting into his car which was parked there.

A man stepped to the car and exclaimed:

"This is a stick-up; give me your money!"

Radcliffe started to leave the car to attempt a capture when the man who spoke, shouted to another man:

"Get him!"

However, both fled.

Radcliffe reported he had quite a sum of money on his person. The men may have had some knowledge of this, he said.

About 10:50 p. m. William Kosin, 25 West Miller street, apprehended a young man whom he claimed was one of several he believed intended to hold up his father near a beer saloon.

Kosin told police that his father had been followed by several young men. His sisters, who were in the vicinity, ran and told him their father was being followed.

Kosin told police that he seized two of the young men. In the struggle one of them escaped. Police were called and the one youth apprehended by Kosin was jailed.

He is being questioned today.

Kosin reported to police that his father had been robbed previously. He also asserted that there have been instances recently of persons having been followed and robbed by persons operating in the southern section of the city.

Judge Thomas W. Dickey is an accommodating sort of chap. No friend ever asked him for a favor that he did not grant if it were possible. He even does favors for people not his friends. One of them was before him a few days ago on a desertion and non-support charge.

After questioning the man Judge Dickey said "I think you can pay something to the support of your wife and two children."

"Before I'll pay a dime I'll rot in jail," replied the customer. To which the judge responded, "We like to accommodate people up here; sheriff, take him away."

And the sheriff did.

The matter of coroner's fees for Sheriff M. M. Ingham and ex-Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard has not been settled as yet. Both of them acted as coroner during the time between the resignation of Orville Potter and the appointment of Charles P. Byers. Controller Hill is not certain as to the law in the matter and has held up payment. It may be that a mandamus will be issued in order to get a court ruling in the case. The total money involved does not exceed $50.

Only a few more days remain until May 2, the last day to change party affiliation. There are still some changes being made but in the past week the majority have been changes from the Democratic to the Republican party.

County Commissioners George H. Bollinger and A. R. Turner accompanied Welfare Officer E. O. Reed to Steubenville, O., on Wednesday to get some information on an insane man in the county jail who is said to belong near Steubenville.

Tuesday night the man got violent and ripped his bed apart in the county jail. If his residence can be established as being in Ohio he will be sent there, instead of to a Pennsylvania institution in which Lawrence county would have to pay the bills.

Desertion and non-support court is being held today in court room No. 1 by Judge Thomas W. Dickey. Jocularly called "rolling pin" court it is one of the saddest of all the courts. Women, denied support by their husbands, appeal to the law to make the husband do the thing he promised he would on the wedding day.

Renew Drive On Non-Aryans

(International News Service)

VIENNA, April 28.—Spurred on by Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goerring's decree ordering all Jews in Germany and Austria to register their private fortunes as a step toward liquidation, Nazi authorities renewed their drive on non-Aryans today.

The directors of Austrian high schools issued an order compelling Jewish students to attend all-Jewish schools only. This order places in effect in Austria a ruling long enforced in Germany itself.

Preparatory services will be held in the Shenango U. P. church on Friday evening at 7:45 with Rev. Robert E. Douglass of East Brook as guest preacher.

Community services will be observed on Sunday morning at 11:30, preceded by Sabbath school at 10:30.

"I was surprised Automobile Owner!"

"I GET BETTER THAN 19 MILES A GALLON IN MY DE LUXE FORD V-8"

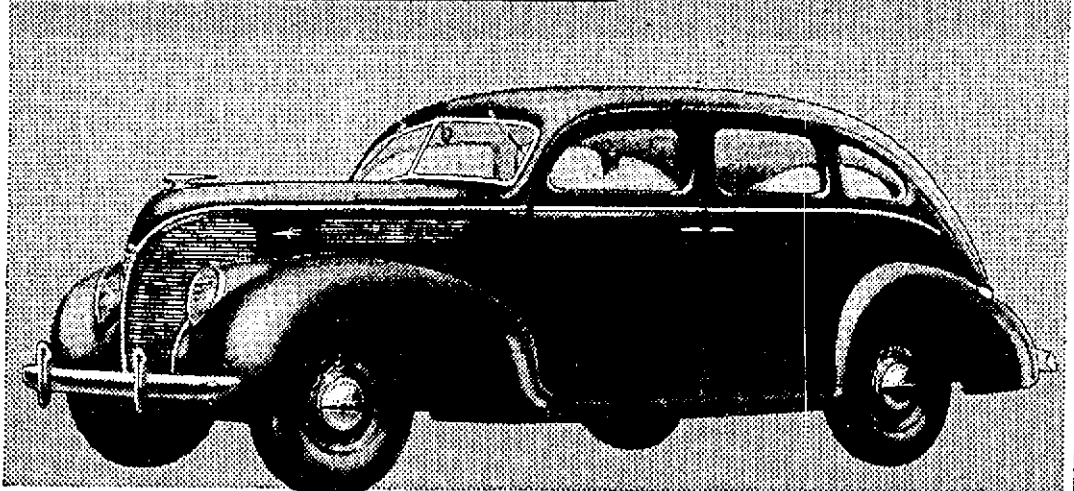

"Enthusiasm prompts me to tell of my satisfaction with my new Ford V-8 De Luxe Fordor Sedan. After the first drive I was a surprised automobile owner—and my surprise and satisfaction increase each time I drive it. For one thing, I am receiving better than 19 miles to the gallon of gasoline; and that's pretty important to a man who drives as much as I do.

"Another thing, every one I have shown this car to has expressed pleasure with its appointments and other features—and it naturally pleases one to hear so much commendation of his choice in an automobile.

"When it comes to performance—well, I could write a book on this subject! It's perfect, that's all."

Dr. H. F. Goodrich Not Decided On Accepting Post

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—Dr. Herbert F. Goodrich, dean of the law school of the University of Pennsylvania, today was debating whether to accept Governor George H. Earle's invitation to fill the Attorney Generalship from which Charles J. Margiotti was ousted.

He was granted 24 hours by Gov. Earle to reach a decision.

"I received the governor's invitation with great surprise," explained Dr. Goodrich, "and in order that I might give the suggestion the deliberation it deserves, requested time to think it over."

Takes Barefoot Walk Daily As Road To Health

(International News Service)

MIDLAND, Mich.—"Apples, tomatoes and humans need air," says ex-miner, Oren (Ginger) Young, 59, and so for 27 years, winter and summer, he has been taking his "daily airing-off period"—a 15-minute barefoot walk.

"Put apples in a hot room without fresh air," Young says, "and they rot rapidly. Give them air and they keep good for a long time."

One of Young's stunts which amazes visitors to the town, is to shovel the snow off his front walk while barefoot and clad only in a light shirt and trousers.

"Of course I wear an overcoat and protect myself from the cold like other folks, but not during my 15-minute daily airing-off period."

FAR WEST TO WAGE WAR ON INSECT PESTS

(International News Service)

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 22.—An army, battling with poison dust guns will take to the battlefield on several Wyoming fronts in a few weeks for renewal of a bitter war on hordes of Mormon crickets.

A record number of insect pests is expected to invade the state this year.

Directed by field headquarters, in Salt Lake City, Utah, of the federal bureau of entomology, workers will start on the insect offensive with state and community agencies in the areas most heavily infested last year.

The program has been undertaken with a $165,000 balance of federal funds and will be intensified with allocations to be made from the $2,000,000 appropriation recently enacted by congress for control of outbreaks of Mormon cricket destruction throughout the Rocky Mountain region.

Last year's cricket outbreak extended into Colorado, Utah, Idaho and Nevada, from an area centering in Wyoming and Montana. Similar areas are expected to be infested this year.

In Wyoming the poison dust battles were effective last year in destroying great hordes of the crickets. The dust is spread over densely infested areas with spray guns, and metal troughs are built as barriers against the pest advance.

AUTO FIRE

Seventh ward firemen were called to the corner of Montgomery and Ashland avenues, at 12:16 a. m. today to extinguish a fire in the automobile owned by A. Russo, of 109 South Liberty street. The fire was due to a short in the wiring. The loss was around $3.

LIONS SPUR BLIND WORK

After finishing another busy month in its all-year-round blind work program, the Lions club today had voted $5 for the work of the American Foundation for the Blind. The greater part of the Lions' program is carried on locally.

Lawrence County Farmers
Paid For Improving 11-
432 Acres Of Land

809 FARMERS
SHARE IN FUND

Lawrence county farm land totaling 1,432 acres was improved by soil-building practices carried out by 809 county farmers under the 1937 AAA farm program, according to figures announced by the Lawrence County Agricultural Conservation Committee. For this work 807 of these farmers already have received checks for a total of $33,766. The farms participating in the program represent about one-half of the total cropland of the county.

The committee emphasized that the results of the 1937 program show that progress has been made toward permanent agricultural conservation and pointed out that the use of similar soil-building practices will continue to be the major feature of the new 1938 program. The committee urged all farmers who wish to participate this year to get in touch with the county office located at 427 Court street, New Castle, and obtain complete information regarding the program at once.

As evidence of agricultural advancement in line with good farm management, the committee pointed to the establishment of new seedlings of clover and timothy on 3,437 acres by 401 farmers and new seedlings of alfalfa by 135 farmers on an additional 858 acres.

Another practice extensively used is in the application of lime and fertilizer by 677 farmers in preparation for seeding grasses and legumes on 5,968 acres while pasture improvement practices were carried out on 629 acres.

The complete list of practices used during the 1937 program in the county and the number of acres improved by each follows:

Establishing new seedlings of clover and timothy, 3,437 acres.
Establishing new seedlings of alfalfa, 858 acres.

Applying lime or fertilizer or both in preparation for seeding grasses or legumes, 5,968 acres.

Applying lime and fertilizer to established legumes and grasses, 105 acres.

Applying lime and fertilizer to established pastures, 677 acres.

Seeding pasture mixture, 2 acres.

Applying nitrogen to soil-conserving cropland in orchards and vineyards, 156 acres.

Growing small grains, annual grasses or legumes as green manure crops, 216 acres.

Planting forest trees, 8 acres.

Protecting woodland pasture with barbed wire fence, 35 rods.

U. S. Plans To Build Three Strategic Air Bases In Pacific

President Has Approved Plan

Will Establish Bases At
Midway Island, Hawaii
And Aleutian Islands

NAVY ASKS CONGRESS AUTHORITY NEEDED

By ROBERT HUMPHREYS
International News-Service Staff
Copyright, 1938.

WASHINGTON, April 28.—After giving express approval of President Roosevelt, the navy has asked congress for immediate authority to establish three strategic air bases designed to give this nation command of the air, as well as the sea, in the vast Pacific.

Far-reaching in its national implications, the program called for a $6,520,000 expenditure to provide bases at Midway Island and "Kauai" bay, Hawaii, in mid-Pacific and at Kodiak in the Aleutian islands off the mainland of Alaska.

The proposal, marking the first open step by the government to discontinue the "status quo" established by the Washington treaty for the Pacific defense, of signatory nations, was officially transmitted to congress by Secretary of Navy Claude A. Swanson.

To Increase Base.

It carried with it a request for an additional $2,041,000 to provide increased air base facilities at Honolulu, and Coco Solo in the canal zone; and for a $10,647,000 outlay at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, for a huge graving dock, shops and other equipment to bring battleship and cruiser repair facilities at that key naval outpost to their maximum strength.

Swanson's communication was made public by Rep. Carl Vinson (D., Georgia), chairman of the house naval committee and author of the billion-dollar naval expansion bill now pending in the senate.

Vinson immediately announced that he would prepare a bill for introduction today authorizing a total allocation of $28,751,000 to carry out Swanson's recommendations, including numerous other naval yard, base and station projects described as urgent by the department.

The veteran Georgia member said that plans called for immediate enactment of the measure so a deficiency appropriation bill carrying funds to start construction of the Kodiak and Midway island bases this summer, could be rushed through congress before adjournment. Brief hearings will be held before his committee next week, he said.

Needed By Navy.
"The proposed bill," Swanson wrote congress, "provides for the most important public works items needed by the navy which may be commenced during one year and it is not a complete program covering all the needs of the navy. Cost is estimated to be $28,751,000."

"The navy department recommends that the legislation be enacted. This proposed legislation is in accord with the program of the president."

The movement to assume command of the air in the Pacific came as complete surprise. A year ago, the Japanese naval ministry, casting a nervous eye on the march of American commercial air routes across the Pacific ocean to the Orient, officially warned that Japan would view with the "gravest apprehension establishment or extension of any American naval or military air bases beyond continental United States."

Present commercial routes, employing landing facilities on the American islands of Midway, Holland, Baker, Guam and Wake, literally bisect the strategic Japanese mandated islands in the western Pacific. While Japanese militarists regard each of the American commercial stations as a potential naval air base, this government, since Japan denounced the Washington treaty in 1936, has returned the suspicions in kind because of the mysterious enshrining activities on many of the Japanese mandated islands.

BIBLE STUDY COURSE CONTINUES TONIGHT

The fourth session of the "Diamond Jubilee" Bible Study Course will be held at the First Baptist church, this evening, and the instructors will be Rev. G. S. Bennett, continuing his Old Testament course and Rev. A. M. Stump, pastor of the St. Paul's Lutheran church giving the lecture on the New Testament course. Rev. Bennett's course has been "The Period of the Judges" and theme "The Life of Fellowship with God as described in the First Epistle of John."

Roosevelt was right about quarantining warring nations. It might prevent the spread of typhus. But how can we prevent the spread of their crazy ideas?

Pike's Peak undoubtedly is Colorado's best known mountain, and Long's Peak runs a close second out both of these must look up to numerous other summits of Colorado.

There are standard tests by which a person may check his course and determine what is the right way. When confused, apply the test of experience. It is foolish to neglect the wisdom of the past. A man is not modern, but a moron, who refuses to heed the accumulated experience of ages of life upon this planet. It is not necessary for me to put my hand in a fire to know that I will be burned; it has been tried so often in the past and always with the same sad consequences.

"History is a great teacher. It gives perspective. A wise man will salvage all that is good from the past. It helps him to evaluate intelligently and sift the myriad new things. Not all that is old is good, neither is anything bad because it is new. The beauties and the commodities gained by the centuries," as William James said, "are our heritage and birthright." Hold your problems up to the wisdom of the ages, heed the great masters of human living who have triumphantly lived the right, and follow the beam of guiding light.

"There is a second test, the test of publicity. In determining your way of life and what you do, would you be willing that your wife or family or friends know it? When a thing is wrong, it must be kept secret. Secrecy is the cloak of evil. Virtue does not fear the light. When I am ashamed to have the public know, then I know I am headed wrong, and the sooner I about face the better.

"A third test is the test of universality. Kant stated it in his Categorical Imperative—Act only on that law whereby thou canst at the same time will that it should become a universal law. If what I do were done by all men, would it be beneficial or injurious to the community? I am tempted to disobey a traffic signal. What if all motorists did so? It would throw the highways into confusion and endanger life and property. The right way always takes into consideration the welfare and good of all the people. If we are willing that everybody, wife and family and friends and all people, shall do what we are doing, the chances are that it is right."

On Friday of this week, at 7:30 p. m. Gwynne Jenkins, of Youngstown, O., will conduct a rehearsal at the First Congregational church of New Castle in preparation for the song festival to be held here next Sunday.

In addition to the usual congregational singing the choir will present "Worthy is the Lamb" and the "Hallelujah Chorus." All who know the two numbers may attend the rehearsal and sing with the chorus on Sunday.

Gwynne Jenkins who is a noted musician will be the director at the song festival.

GOITRE

Make this quick test. Get a small bottle Serbel-Quadruple, a colorless liquid. For simple goitre apply twice daily. It quickly supplies substance needed by the thyroid gland. Thousands have been relieved. Get more information at most drug stores. Paisley Pharmacy, Note: Mrs. Ella Wait, Export, Pa., says, "I was relieved 8 years ago. I will tell or write my experience to anyone."

Three Tests, Kiwanians Hear, Will Keep Man On Right Course

"Three simple tests—most infallible tests—honestly applied will check up on a man and keep him on the course that leads to a happy landing," Dr. John J. McIlvaine, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, told the Kiwanis club yesterday in a luncheon address on "Thinking That Leads to Trouble."

Dr. McIlvaine declared of those tests:

"There are standard tests by which a person may check his course and determine what is the right way. When confused, apply the test of experience. It is foolish to neglect the wisdom of the past. A man is not modern, but a moron, who refuses to heed the accumulated experience of ages of life upon this planet. It is not necessary for me to put my hand in a fire to know that I will be burned; it has been tried so often in the past and always with the same sad consequences.

"History is a great teacher. It gives perspective. A wise man will salvage all that is good from the past. It helps him to evaluate intelligently and sift the myriad new things. Not all that is old is good, neither is anything bad because it is new. The beauties and the commodities gained by the centuries," as William James said, "are our heritage and birthright." Hold your problems up to the wisdom of the ages, heed the great masters of human living who have triumphantly lived the right, and follow the beam of guiding light.

"There is a second test, the test of publicity. In determining your way of life and what you do, would you be willing that your wife or family or friends know it? When a thing is wrong, it must be kept secret. Secrecy is the cloak of evil. Virtue does not fear the light. When I am ashamed to have the public know, then I know I am headed wrong, and the sooner I about face the better.

"A third test is the test of universality. Kant stated it in his Categorical Imperative—Act only on that law whereby thou canst at the same time will that it should become a universal law. If what I do were done by all men, would it be beneficial or injurious to the community? I am tempted to disobey a traffic signal. What if all motorists did so? It would throw the highways into confusion and endanger life and property. The right way always takes into consideration the welfare and good of all the people. If we are willing that everybody, wife and family and friends and all people, shall do what we are doing, the chances are that it is right."

Buffington To Leave Bench

Judge Buffington At 83, Will Leave Federal Bench, Served 46 Years

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, April 28.—Judge Joseph Buffington, 83, senior member of the U. S. circuit court of appeals here, today had formally notified Washington that he will retire from the bench May 14 after 46 years of service—the longest tenure in the history of the country.

A fortnight ago, two associates of Judge Buffington, Charles J. Whitaker Thompson and Victor B. Woolley, announced their retirement under the new federal law allowing them full salary for life at retirement after 70. Remaining circuit court judges are J. Warren Davis of Trenton, N. J., and John Biggs, Jr., of Wilmington, Del.

Judge Buffington, a native of Kittanning, was graduated from Trinity college in 1893 and admitted to the bar three years later. At 37 he was appointed federal judge for western Pennsylvania, and President Theodore Roosevelt raised him to the circuit court for the third district in 1906.

HAD TO LEARN TO ECONOMIZE --- A BENDIX HOME LAUNDRY DID THE TRICK FOR THEM AS IT WILL FOR YOU!

It Washes . . . Rinses . . . Damp Dries . . . Automatically!

Imagine, if you can, a machine that does all the work of washing . . . automatically. That washes clothes, puts them through three separate fresh water rinses, whirls them damp dry . . . with absolutely no attention from you.

That's exactly what the Bendix Home Laundry does. That's why it's the logical successor to the washing machine . . . the most astonishing home appliance of the century.

Imagine it . . . you just put in the clothes, set the controls . . . add soap and bluing . . . and start it going. You can do housework . . . shop . . . visit . . . read. When the washing is finished the Bendix shuts off automatically.

That's your new washday . . . with the Bendix Home Laundry . . . A workless washday!

This Is All YOU Do!

"I advise every bride to see a demonstration of the marvelous Bendix," says Betty Grable. And mighty good advice, too, for the successor to the washing machine takes all the toil and drudgery out of washday.

- 1 Put dry, soiled clothes into dry cylinder and shut the door.
- 2 Set the automatic time and water controls . . . add soap and bluing.
- 3 Take out clean, sweet clothes—damp-dry and ready for the line.

There's other symptoms of kidney trouble that make life miserable—that keep you feeling irritable and out of sorts.

You Wouldn't Let Your Bowels Be Clogged With Poisonous Waste?

Doesn't it stand to reason that your waste clogged kidneys need a good thorough cleaning the same as your waste-clogged bowels?

And when you can clean them safely and without harm and improve your health while so doing, why not ask your druggist for a 35-cent box of Gold Medal Haazlem Oil Capsules and start to get rid of the excess uric acid which poisons the system.

BE SURE AND GET THE GENUINE—ASK FOR GOLD MEDAL

Some other symptoms that point to clogged kidneys are puffy eyes—darkness under the eyes and moist patches.

Veteran Hollywood Stunt Man Retires At 30 After Dodging Death For 6 Years

(International News Service)
HOLLYWOOD, April 28.—A retired stunt man at the age of thirty years, is Sol Gorse, Warner Bros. stock player and double who has done virtually every stunt on the calendar for pictures and knows when he's had enough.

It wasn't an accident or a near accident that decided Gorse on what is to him a momentous decision, but as he calls it, "just plain common sense."

"I've been dodging the Grim Reaper for six years," he says. "I've made good money risking my life and my bones for movie thrills, and I've saved it. I can't always be lucky, and my only New Year's resolution was that I'll take no more bumps. If I can't make good as an actor and as a double on stunts that require strength and skill, rather than risk of life and limb, I'd better go back to playing golf."

Formerly a Caddy
Formerly a caddy and then an assistant golf professional, Gorse got his first job in pictures through Sam Bischoff, Warner Bros. producer, whose score he cut down from an uncertain 110 to consistently low 80's. That was six years ago, and he's been under contract to Warner Bros. ever since.

He has done scores of stunts for "The Adventures of Robin Hood," his current production, the one requiring the most nerve being to run through a doorway and let Howard Hill, world famous archer, put a steel pointed arrow into his chest. Of course he was protected by a steel breast plate, but it was the first time Hill had ever shot at a human target and no one knew whether he'd be as accurate under a heavy nervous strain as he is ordinarily. Since then, two dozen others have been shot down by Hill's arrows, but Gorse got paid off for being the first man to have the nerve to try it.

In addition to his golf, Gorse is a former professional football player, an excellent boxer and an expert swordsman.

Domestic Quarrel Injures The Wife More Than Husband

What Medical Scientists Have Found Out Regarding Family Troubles

(International News Service)
LONDON, April 28.—When you and your wife indulge in one of those inevitable domestic squabbles it hurts her more than it hurts you.

The world has this on the authority of medical scientists, whose findings were revealed by Dr. Erich Wittkower, in a paper read before the Section of Psychiatry of the Royal Society in London.

Science has discovered that the woman suffers certain physical effects in the course of a row. Her heart goes smaller, or larger, for example.

But the fact that man is able to express his feelings by using bad language apparently saves him from having a nervous breakdown.

X-Rays Studied
One scientist even took X-ray photographs of his wife's heart during "matrimonial arguments." Calmly, in the name of science, he examined the negative.

He knew the size of his wife's heart gets smaller, or larger, for example, "distinctly smaller."

What Dr. Wittkower reported affects every married couple in the world. His own experimental researches, carried out mainly under hypnosis, were directed to fluctuations in the size of the heart as seen by X-rays.

"The heart, in common speech," he said, "is supposed to be the seat of the emotions. Persons are said to be soft-hearted, and cases of broken-heart are recorded."

Caused Heart Attacks
"The wife of my colleague suffered from heart attacks during matrimonial quarrels," he said in explaining the result of the X-ray photograph taken by that colleague.

It was left to Dr. Letitia Fairfield, at the same meeting, to mention the relief of violent language.

Both male and female, she said, in a certain occupation were subjected to very much the same emotional strain. But breakdowns among the women were very much more common.

It was suggested that the reason was that men, when annoyed, could discharge their nervous energy by violent language, or act, whereas convention forbade such a recourse in the case of the women.

Old Vaudeville Pair Prosper As Bird Trainers

(International News Service)
CHelsea, Mass.—Several years ago, just another piano and trombone team in vaudeville trying to make both ends meet.

Today, successful business men in one of the world's strangest occupations—trainers of birds.

Inability to get consistent booking on the vaudeville circuit, prompted Max and Harry Keil brothers, to change their course of life.

Now, as trainers and exhibitors of performing birds the Keil brothers are enjoying "prosperity."

Tricks Of Trade
It is not a difficult task to train birds, according to Max. The main thing as in training animals, is to win their confidence. Getting them used to being handled, he said takes from one to two weeks. After that, the trick must be continually repeated. One tone of voice must be used for each trick so that the command will bring the right response.

The Keil troupe, which tours the country giving performances, is headed by three-name stars—"Goo-Goo" a masked love bird, the Keil brothers' favorite, "Popeye" the "Crosby of canaries," who is the featured cylist and "Jiggs" a juggling Parkakeet.

Hospital Fund Nearing $5,000

Total Of Fund Is Announced Today As $4,600; To Solicit Zelenople

ELLWOOD CITY, April 28.—The hospital fund reached the $4,600 mark today and campaign officials are out trying to retrace the town in order to obtain additional funds in the house-to-house canvass.

One of the wards in this city turned in a very disappointing amount in the house-to-house canvass. It was hoped that ward would contribute at least $500 toward the fund, but after the solicitors finished only $200 was turned in.

Citizens of this community can help swell the fund by attending the Majestic theater tonight, where a splendid feature picture will be shown and the entire proceeds will be given to the hospital fund, with no expenses deducted.

Performances of the circus tomorrow sponsored by the local American Legion post are also expected to aid the fund considerably, as the Legion will give their entire percentage proceeds over to the fund.

It is hoped that more $100 contributions will be added to the fund within the next few days.

To Solicit Zelenople

Dr. H. R. Helling, chairman of the local hospital drive, needs an organization of women and men to solicit Zelenople Saturday morning.

The weekly Zelenople paper is carrying an editorial this week urging the people of that community to contribute to the hospital fund as it is Ellwood City's.

Any organizations volunteering to do this work Saturday morning will be doing a splendid deed of civic work.

Organizations wishing to do the work are urged to call Dr. Helling or the Chamber of Commerce immediately.

Senior Class Play On Friday

Many Dramatic Students To Appear In Cast Of "Daddy-Long-Legs"

ELLWOOD CITY, April 28.—On Friday evening in the Lincoln high school auditorium the senior class of May, 1938, will present the annual spring production.

This year's presentation, "Daddy Long-Legs", is a four-act comedy, the story of which is a familiar one. The story centers about the life of a young orphan girl, Judy Abbott, and her benefactor, whom she has never seen but calls Daddy-Long-Legs. The manner in which Judy finds out who her benefactor is leads to a happy, climatic ending.

The cast is large and is made up of students of outstanding dramatic ability. Miss Elizabeth McKnight had directed the presentation.

Promptly at 8:15 o'clock the curtain will rise on the first act. No person will be seated who arrives late, until the first act is completed.

The seniors invite the public to share with them this last of their public undertakings.

Sons Of Legion Entertain Dads

Pictures Shown By Andy Biorci Highlight Of Enjoyable Event

ELLWOOD CITY, April 28.—Most successful was the "Dad's Night" celebration held Wednesday evening by members of the Sons of Legion at the Legion Home, Sixth street. Forty members and twenty-five dads shared the enjoyable event.

The highlight of the evening was the showing of moving pictures for one hour by Andy Biorci, of this city. The first picture showed the operation of a gold mine in British Africa and this was followed by five reels of western drama, showing the political struggle of the annexation of Wyoming state into the Union. The pictures were educational and instructive and the organization is most grateful to Mr. Biorci for his generosity.

An admirable act of the Legion was their decision to contribute $5 to the hospital fund.

Captain Bob Bracken called the meeting to order and reports of the Memorial Day, Finance, Drum Corps and Rifle club committees were given by Mack Wilson, Bob Dunning, Ray Kuliger and Bob Jubach respectively.

Three new members, McLaughlin, McKenna and Bauer, were received into the membership of the organization, making the total membership of the squadron 52.

To make the affair complete, ten members of the Legion served tempting refreshments. The next regular meeting will be held Wednesday evening, May 11.

Scout Leadership Course Is Started

Twenty-Five Men Start Course Of Instruction For Scout Leadership

ELLWOOD CITY, April 28.—The first class of the Boy Scout Leadership Training Course was held Tuesday evening in the Lincoln high school building. Twenty-five men—many of whom are entirely new in the work and others who have had some experience—were present. Five were present from Bessemer.

The group assembled in room 114 and formed into two patrols: the Pelican Patrol with E. Ritchie as patrol leader and the Beaver patrol with J. McGowan as patrol leader.

Following the first discussion period which was led by Scout Executive Carl Green the group met in the small gym and practiced the troop formations and formalities as had been suggested by Mr. Green. The drill exercises were conducted by E. Ritchie, scout master of the Baptist troop.

The second discussion period was also led by Mr. Green with the different scout masters telling how they received the new boy into the troop. Plans were started for a later meeting when a special investiture exercises will be demonstrated by the group.

Second Class Next Week

The second class meeting of the course will be held next Tuesday evening at 7:30 sharp in Room 114 at the Lincoln building. George Bessor will be acting scout master taking charge of the meeting with the Beaver patrol in charge of the opening and closing exercises and the Pelican patrol in charge of the stunt period.

The discussion periods next week will have to do with How and Why to keep Troop records and the significance of the Scout Uniform. Capable instructors have been secured and the class is looking forward to another good meeting. The demonstration period will be devoted to signalling which will be conducted by Mr. Ritchie.

In spite of the fact that a large number were present several of the local troops were not represented. This course is being conducted so that not only new men but those who are scout masters, assistant scout masters and committeemen might be able to get some new ideas and help advance scouting in Ellwood City. The local council is urging all who can to attend two or three of the classes at least.

The last day of school will be the best day of the whole term. There won't be any studying—unless it's just to show off for visiting parents and friends the things that have been accomplished since that "long ago day" last September when the clanging of teacher's bell summoned the boys and girls to their books.

The good old customs of our parent's day are still followed in many of the small schools. At noon there will be a sumptuous dinner with mothers and dads and friends as guests, and if the weather is warm the dinner will be served outdoors on the lawns. And in the afternoon there will be recitations, exercises, spelling bees and singing and many pupils will be presented with awards for perfect attendance and other special merits.

Most of the consolidated schools have gone "modern" and on the closing day, picnics have been discarded, and the pupils are taken on a hike by their teachers.

At the Matheny school in Wayne township, the Parent-Teacher organization will celebrate the closing day with the pupils hostessing with the picnic dinner and concluding with a miscellaneous program in the afternoon.

At the present time, the township schools observe eight-month terms, the minimum required by law. The swing is toward a longer term and, no doubt, when school resumes next September, a number of the boards will have adopted the nine-month term.

Students completing eighth grade work in the townships will be given promotion tests prior to entering high school in various centers early in May. Those passing the exams will be given a high school promotion certificate and an entrance certificate that will be accepted in the high schools without further test.

Re-Appoint Four Police Officers For 10 Day Period

Council met today in the city building and upon the recommendation of Mayor Charles E. McGrath, re-appointed for a period of 10 days as city police officers, John Wincek, Thomas Farrow, Thomas J. Boyles and Clarence Farrow. Councilman William H. Dunlap offered the second to the recommendation of the mayor.

The mayor explained that the State Motor Police training school will open July 1, and the city will appoint permanently to the force, subject to their passing the training school test, men whom the mayor believes will qualify.

In Bitter Florida Campaign

Florida's Democratic senatorial primary campaign has been enlivened by charges that WPA has loaded its relief rolls with paid political workers for New Deal Senator Claude Pepper, seeking re-election. Former Gov. Dave Sholtz and Representative J. Mark Wilcox, two of Pepper's four opponents for the nomination, made the charges. Senator Pepper is an ardent New Dealer, having supported President Roosevelt on all major issues. The election occurs May 3.

German, Hungarian Demands Cause Czech Crisis

The post-war republic of Czechoslovakia, carved out of the Austro-Hungarian monarchy in 1918, faced a serious crisis with international ramifications as the Sudetenland party's Germans seek autonomy for themselves in former Bohemia and as Hungary requests return of Slovakia province. In effect, should the	government, headed by President Edward Beneš, concede, Czechoslovakia, a nation of 15,000,000 people, would be dismembered. The Czech Nazi leader, Konrad Heinlein, made the demand for such government for 3,500,000 Sudeten Germans at a party congress at Karlovy Vary.

Green Demands Bribery Probe

Grand Jury Investigation Of Margiotti's Charges Is Demanded

SPARE NONE IN PROBE IS PLEA

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, April 28.—An immediate grand jury investigation of former Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti's charges of bribery was demanded today by G. Edward Green, Republican state chairman. He issued a statement demanding such a probe "in the name of decency in government."

The statement reads:
"Things have come to a pretty pass in Pennsylvania when a governor who admits accepting money from a contractor boss who afterward fattened upon state contracts keeps himself in office while he fires his attorney general for making, in line with his official duty, disclosures of graft and corruption."

Governor E. B. Spang has appointed a committee to investigate the charges. Two members of his cabinet, this is diametrically opposed to the usual custom of suspending public officials under charges pending the result of investigation.

"Secretary Lawrence seems to be trying to hide behind the fact that in 1935 the Republicans were in control of the state senate and the attorney general nominates that there might be some Republican members of the house involved."

"Regardless of who is involved, I, as leader of the Republican party in Pennsylvania, demand in the name of decency in government an immediate grand jury investigation. Such investigation should include not only the charges of bribery but also the $1,200,000 kick-back of architect's fees. No longer will the people stand for the Earl administration investigating itself and whitewashing those guilty as it has done numerous times in the past, such as in the Erie gravel scandal."

"Backward region: Those unfavorable sections of America which have not yet felt the new depression."

11-Year-Old Boy Saves Playmate From Suffocation

(International News Service)
NORWALK, O.—Inquiry has been made as to the possibility of securing a Carnegie Foundation hero medal for Junior Gray, 11, who saved his playmate, Peter MacDonald, from suffocation.

The Gray boy, Jack Gerken, 11, and Peter were playing in a sand bank cave they had dug when the ceiling collapsed and Peter was completely covered by sand.

While Jack Gerken ran for aid, Junior Gray started digging, dog fashion, with his hands. He succeeded in uncovering Peter's head, and by continuous effort kept the sand from sliding back. He was keeping the MacDonald boy's head free of the sand when Jack Gerken returned with Peter's father, who dug the imprisoned boy free.

Junior Gray did not tell of his exploit, and it was not until several days later, when Peter recovered from his bruises suffered in the accident and returned to school that the story was told.

MINE CLOSES AFTER YEARS OF OPERATION

(International News Service)
CONNELLSVILLE.—Its supply of coal exhausted after 38 years of continuous mining, the Trotter mine, operated by the Republic Steel corporation, was abandoned recently after producing an estimated 27,000,000 tons during its existence.

Tracks, machinery, motors and other equipment were removed from the workings after the shutdown. Operations were first started in the mine by the Connelville Coke company. Three years later the H. C. Frick Coke company assumed control, selling out to Republic about three years ago.

AGE NO BARRIER

(International News Service)
ROCKLAND, Me.—No age barrier and easy, tireless career for John A. Murphy, 80-year-old sports devotee.

Telling a group of youths at a local skating place:
"I used to be quite a feller in my day," Murphy proved his statement by cutting a neat figure eight on the ice.
